Fiscal Officer Report

Administrator Report

- Village Yard Sales will take place the weekend of May 8th, and Village Clean-Up will take place the following weekend on May 16th.
- All Village residents will be receiving a letter about the upcoming LMI study beginning in April. This study is being conducted as a randomized survey per state requirements. Once completed, it will open the Village to an abundance of grant opportunities.

Participation in the study is 100% voluntary, and a representative will be going door-to-door to collect survey responses.

- I would also like to thank all Village Departments, along with the residents who helped with debris clean-up after Friday's high winds. Your assistance was greatly appreciated.

Zoning Officer Report

Dusty reported on a letter received from the school regarding upcoming updates and parcel changes.

Chip asked if he could receive a copy of the proposed changes. Dusty stated that the process is not far enough along to provide that information at this time.

Scott Wilson requested an update on zoning violations, including property 160. Dusty indicated that the process would likely need to be restarted.

Safety Report

Matt reported 14 runs on Friday due to windstorms. He also discussed a car crash involving two toddlers. Thad and Jason rescued the children from a burning vehicle.

Chief Patrick reported on the windstorm, noting that 15 calls were received. He also stated that juveniles involved in break-ins were apprehended. Chip asked for the location of these incidents.

Chief Patrick also discussed the upcoming "Run on the 21st" 5K and referenced the race map.
